

i Flourish | April 11, 2021

Sometimes, I feel down and all my Spirit and Plans are down too.

But I Decide to Flourish and Grow.

I Decide to Revive my Spirit and Soul.

Asking, why to feel down, disparate and disappointed.

We were Born to Add a Footprint.

We were Born to Feel Fulfillment.

We were Born to Flourish and Grow.

We were Born to Service Each Other.

We were Born to Add Value.

Challenges make US unique at each stage of development from birth through old age.

Everything is going to be Okay.

Just keep on Smiling and Move...
